

DOUGLAS M. REITER, CMC

EDUCATION

- B.S. Political Science, University of Oregon
- M.A. Organizational Psychology, University of Oregon
- Peter F. Drucker Management Seminar, UCLA
- Moshe Rubenstein Problem Solving Seminar, UCLA
- Creative Problem Solving Institute, SUNY, Buffalo, NY

Mr. Reiter has been a cutting-edge management consultant for thirty years and is recognized in The Wall Street Journal, National Business Employment Weekly, Oregon Business Journal, trade and airline magazines. He has published numerous articles in magazines such as Industry Week & Employment Relations Today.

From 1983 through 1991, he worked as the acting Senior Vice President of Human Resources for Bohemia, Inc., reporting to President and CEO, Richard Tinney. During this period, the company grew fourfold and attained unprecedented profitability. “There were two reasons equally responsible for Bohemia’s outstanding success – the people who ran the corporation and the man who recruited them for us.” - Richard Tinney, CEO.

The Douglas Reiter Company, Inc., since its inception in 1978, has successfully completed senior level consulting projects, search assignments, and provided Interim Managers to numerous industries, including such clients as:

- NW Natural Gas Company, Inc.
- Morrow Snowboard, Inc.
- AGPR, Inc. (Division of Mitsubishi Japan)
- Asahi Glass Electronic Materials
- Roseburg Forest Products
- ShoreBank Pacific
- Rosboro Lumber Company
- Read Right Systems, Inc
- Port of Sacramento
- Stimson Lumber Company, Inc.
- American Institute of Timber Construction
- Trillium Corporation

PROFESSIONAL DISTINCTION

Vice President, Board of Directors, Lake Oswego Adult Center Foundation
Board of Directors, Goose Lake Lumber Company (Past)
Board of Directors, The Oregon Association of Personnel Consultants (Past)
Chairman, Pacific Corridor Enterprise Council for Oregon (Past)